DEVASTATING QUAKES STILL ON.

People Thrown From Their Beds in Northern Italy By Succession Of Shocks.

ALL ITALY IS TERROR-STRICKEN.

* * *

(By United Press.)

ROME, Jan. 13—Many cities in the northern part of Italy were shaken by the earthquake this morning. The shock at Genoa is the severest yet reported. People in other cities were thrown from their beds. Milan, Venice, Florence and Bologna felt the shock, and many other cities have not been heard from.

Later reports this morning contain rumors of heavy property loss in the larger cities. As yet there are no accounts of any deaths, although details are meager.

LATER REPORT.

ROME, Jan. 13—Noon.—The latest reports of the quake this morning says a few houses collapsed and many churches fell.

THE TICKER FELL SHORT.

* * *

It transpires that the United Press lifted the Duchess of Marlborough. It was an easy thing to do. In the side to the Daily News Monday the ticker ticker spelled it out Duchess of Marlborough when it should have been the "Dowager" Duchess of Marlborough. The Duchess of Marlborough, who in New York was Consuelo Vatch-ell, is very much alive. Now let the world resume its normal functions.

IT'S THE ELKS YOU WANT AN EYE ON.

It's In Order Now To Decorate And Show The Visitors Your Respects.

BUNTING BEGINS TO SHOW UP.

* * *

The date for the inauguration of the new antlered order is fast approaching and preparations for the unusually interesting event are going forward with satisfactory progress.

The first to decorate is Dr. N. H. Clark, who has trimmed up his jewelry window in a most artistic and catchy style. You can't pass and not stop and admire the Clark window.

All local Elks and as many of their friends as will should meet the trains prepared to convey the visiting Elks down town. Everybody who has an auto is solicited to go to the station and help make an imposing line-up. You are then invited to join in the line of march down and around the city.

Keep this in mind: Visiting Elks will arrive Friday as follows: From the North at 11:40 a. m., and 1:45 p. m.; from the South at 3:21 and 3:44 p. m. You'd better clip this out for future reference.

The local Elks will up-ovulate the assembling of a large delegation of Daytonians to meet the visitors; they would likewise be pleased if you will decorate your homes of business and your homes. Plenty of material for decorative purposes may be had at Clarke and perhaps at other stores.

A Good Chance.

THE MINSTRELS MAKE A HIT.

Wilmans Opera House was taxed to its full capacity last night and the audience enjoyed the performance by Coburn's Greater Minstrels from start to finish. Manager Burgman of the Opera House, at the ticket office, was kept a busy man for two hours to accommodate the crowds eager for seats, and later apologized to the audience for not being able to handle the business faster and promised to do better hereafter.

Mr. Coburn's aggregation of merry songsters lived up fully to their well established reputation. It was a jolly, rollicking presentation of fun and song and dance and kept the audience in merry mood and laughter to the very close. The Daily News would say to those who did not or could not attend last night to go tonight, it will help your digestion and keep you in good temper for a month.

Wilmans Opera House with its brilliant exterior illumination was surrounded by three score of automobiles, carriages and busses. The house is well ventilated and you keep very comfortable while enjoying the performance.

[By United Press.]

A Tuberculosis Exhibition.

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 13.—More than a hundred people, leading men and women of the community, are engaged in preparing for the American Tuberculosis Exhibition to be held, first in this city, and then in Tampa and Pensacola. This is the same kind of an exhibit, on a smaller scale, as that recently visited by forty-five thousand people in one day, and again by sixty-five thousand in one day in New York.

SWITCHBACK, W. Va., Jan. 13.—Workers are today making frantic efforts to reach 200 miners believed to be entombed in the Lick Branch mine. Eleven bodies have been taken out so far. Two hundred safety lamps and a car load of coffins are expected to reach here this morning and relief trains with supplies of all kinds are now on the way.

KILLED TURKEYS AND MALLARDS.

Fred Stones, J. Milligan and Mr. Hand drove up to Bull Island, at the head of Tomoka river, last Thursday, on a hunting trip, returning home Saturday.

They found quantities of game, and lived royally on squirrel, quail and other small game while in camp, and when they returned brought with them over 20 fine Mallard ducks and several turkeys. They also saw several deer while on the trip. Altogether they had a very successful and enjoyable outing.

Wedding Anniversary.

Some of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Townsend of Groton, S. D., who are spending the season here in their handsome winter residence, corner of Volusia and Palmetto avenues, decided to give them a surprise on their tenth wedding anniversary, so about twenty gathered at Mrs. Emma Edick's, Monday evening, and proceeded together from there to the Townsend home, where they were themselves surprised to find Mrs. Townsend waiting to receive them, she in some way having become aware of the plan.

Mr. and Mrs. Townsend were the recipients of quite a quantity of tinware, including articles of almost every description. Light refreshments were served during the evening, and a very pleasant social time enjoyed by the assembled company.

A SCATTERING OF VEGETABLES

During the Coburn Minstrel parade Tuesday noon a horse belonging to J. H. Futch became frightened by the band and broke away from him on Beach street, just south of the city hall. Mr Futch is a trucker and had his wagon loaded with vegetables of various kinds.

The frightened animal turned up Orange avenue and thence up Ridgewood to Magnolia, west on Magnolia to Baker, north on Baker to Volusia, and westward on Volusia avenue toward home. He scattered vegetables at every jump, and people later following the the same course evidently thought there had been a free distribution of carrots, turnips, etc., and helped themselves accordingly.

The horse finally tried to jump the gate into the H. H. Brittle place, on Volusia avenue, and hung up on the same Mr. Brittle and a man in his employ rescued the animal and took him to Mr. Futch's place.

Little damage was done beyond the breaking of a single tree and some parts of the harness and the loss of vegetables.

THE JOURNAL "RIPS 'EM UP THE BACK"

And Rubs In Capsicum and Chloride of Sodium Under The Callous Hide.

"THEM'S OUR SENTIMENTS."

Under the significant caption, "Cheap Flagler Advertising," the esteemed Daytona Halifax Journal, of today's issue strikes straight from the shoulder as witness:

"There is nothing so persistent as the force of habit.

"For several years, as all the world has known, the annual automobile races in Florida have been run on the Daytona Beach course. The races have all started at the Club House of the Florida East Coast Automobile Association at Daytona Beach—none at Ormond.

"Ormond has no beach that the racers dare risk their lives and machines on. This year the Flagler-Ormond interests have contributed nothing toward the funds so greatly needed.

"The Journal objects to the wolf appearing in sheep's clothing; to Ormond sailing under false colors; to the Flagler interests parading stolen thunder; to cheap advertising of those interests by the Flagler press of Florida—the Times-Union, the Metropolis and the St. Augustine Evening Record.

"Of course every one knows, or ought to know, and if he don't this will inform him, that all the money to lubricate the races this year has been contributed by Daytona enterprise. If any has come from elsewhere it is only the small change.

"This protest, we know, will not lay the 'Ormond-Daytona' ghost, but it does give voice to the indignation of all fair-minded people."

Recently the Daily News gave voice to sentiment similar to the foregoing, and was roundly taken to task for so impolitic and unwise a protest. Now observe that the conservative and experienced editor of the Journal makes the issue stronger and more pronounced.

Excepting J. D. Price, of the Ormond Hotel, who contributed liberally, the Daily News does not recall the name of a single citizen of Ormond, who, by financial aid, justifies the further use of the hyphened name—Ormond-Daytona.

If the admirable beach found here and on to the inlet, extended north beyond Ormond there might be some sense in the "Ormond-Daytona" expression, but here Ormond has neither the beach nor seems inclined to put up her part of the funds necessary to carry on a great race. the Daily News thinks Editor Seaman is fully justified in the vigorous protest he so admirably registers.

MAXINE ELLIOTT AND HER NEW THEATER.

Maxine Elliott, besides being rated as one of the most beautiful women on the stage, is the only actress in the world who has her own theater. The new Maxine Elliott theater in West Thirty-ninth street, New York, was planned by Miss Elliott and built under her direction. She invested a fortune in it and owns it in copartnership with the Shuberts. The playhouse has many entirely new features. It is probably the costliest theater of its size in the world.

SEABREEZE, Jan 13.—Major Russell was enjoying his front porch yesterday. He says he feels quite like a boy for 78 years old.

Pr. A. T. Bigelow is having the east end of his lot cleared in order to set an orchard to orange trees and grapefruit. Other improvements are being made, such as laying a front walk and finishing interior decorating, making in one total the needed touches to a very artistic and complete home.

M. L. Waggoner has purchased a lot on Halifax and University boulevard and is having it cleared for a building this spring. This property lies on the opposite corner from the Armstrong block, which is also being cleared for the erection of two cottages.

Halifax avenue lacks about a block of connection with the Ormond shell road. The council has instructed that this needy strip be temporarily covered with pine straw for the convenience of automobile driving.

The Italian grass is quite a success as a winter soil, especially during rainy seasons. B. B. Woodward's river front home is a pleasing instance, and the Clarendon grounds and those of its numerous cottages. It will be interesting to note how it stands the summer sun.

The town council met in adjourned session Monday night in regard to letting some street contracts.

Mrs. Pierson and daughter, Miss Pierson, joined Mr. Pierson and Miss Winifred at the Cherokee last night, after a day's drive in Jacksonville.

Everybody was out of doors yesterday. The tourists are enjoying the ocean and river plots as a result whether inclined to the fishing sport or not. The bus drive to Daytona is very popular, and the curb stores a never ending source of interest. After a few days of cloudy weather the sunshine tempted the bathers and the beach was well patronized.

Miss Bertha Wicking is guest at the home of Miss Lou Ott and enjoyed the Greater Minstrels last night.

Saved His Rupees.

During a great flood at Haldrabad a native banker, overtaken by the sudden rush of water, made his way on to a mound, where he was quickly benighted. The water soon rose, the banker's legs were covered to his knees, "Fifty rupees (about £3 7s.), 50 rupees," he shouted, "to any one who will save me!" When the water reached his shoulder he was shouting, "One thousand rupees!" When enveloped to his neck, with death staring him in the face, he yelled: "Help! All that I have will I give to any one to save me!" Shortly after the water began to recede. When once more he was covered only to his knees an offer of rescue came. But the banker, plucking up his courage, cried: "Keep off! Keep off! I will not give a rupee!" and succeeded in making his escape free of charge.—St. James' Gazette.

Ringing the Breakfast Bell.

An American family who had experienced the difficulty of obtaining and retaining the services of a reliable waiting girl while on a visit to Ireland became acquainted with a promising young girl and brought her back home with them.

In a few weeks she was installed in her new home and made acquainted with her new duties. Among other things she was told that it was customary when breakfast was ready to be served to ring the breakfast bell. Her "all right, ma'am," came in such a confident tone that her mistress gave the matter no further thought.

The following morning at 8 o'clock the family were rudely awakened by the violent ringing of the front door bell. Thinking that a messenger must be waiting with some unusual message, the gentlemen of the house did not stop to dress, but hurried down in his night robe and opened the door. The new Irish girl awaited him, her face beaming with a beautiful smile of triumph. Bowing low, she said in her rich Irish brogue, "Breakfast is ready, sor."—Los Angeles Times.

Seabreeze News

SEABREEZE, Jan 13.—Major Russell was enjoying his front porch yesterday. He says he feels quite like a boy for 78 years old.

Dr. A. T. Bigelow is having the east end of his lot cleared in order to set an orchard to orange trees and grapefruit. Other improvements are being made, such as laying a front walk and finishing interior decorating, making in sum total the needed touches to a very artistic and complete home.

M. L. Waggoner has purchased a lot on Halifax and University boulevard and is having it cleared for a building this spring This property lies on the opposite corner from the Armstrong block, which is also being cleared for the erection of two cottages.

Halifax avenue lacks about a block of connection with the Ormond shell road The council has instructed that this sandy strip be temporarily covered with pine straw for the convenience of automobile driving.

The Italian grass is quite a success as a winter sod, especially during rainy seasons B. D. Woodward's river front home is a pleasing instance, and the Clarendon grounds and those of its numerous cottages. It will be interesting to note how it stands the summer sun.

The town council met in adjourned session Monday night in regard to letting some street contracts.

Mrs. Pierson and daughter, Miss Pierson, joined Mr. Pierson and Miss Winifred at the Cherokee cottage, after a day's delay in Jacksonville.

Everybody was out of doors yesterday. The tourists are enjoying the ocean and river piers as a resort whether inclined to the fishing sport or not. The bus drive to Daytona is very popular, and the curio stores a never ending source of interest. After a few days of cloudy weather the sunshine tempted the bathers and the beach was well patronized.

Miss Bertha Wicking is guest at the home of Miss Lou Ott and enjoyed the Greater Minstrels last night.

Saved His Rupees.

During a great flood at Haidarabad a native banker, overtaken by the sudden rush of water, made his way on to a mound, where he was quickly isolated. The water rose, and the banker's legs were covered to his knees. "Fifty rupees (about £3 7s.), 50 rupees," he shouted, "to any one who will save me!" When the water reached his shoulder he was shouting, "One thousand rupees!" When enveloped to his neck, with death staring him in the face, he yelled: "Help, help! All that I have will I give to any one to save me!" Shortly after the water began to recede. When once more he was covered only to his knees an offer of rescue came. But the banker, plucking up his courage, cried: "Keep off! Keep off! I will not give a rupee!" and succeeded in making his escape free of charge.—St. James' Gazette.

The Modern Seven Wonders

Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy veranda's looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid an liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked liveoaks extent their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artist's brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see th climbing vines running riot in the trees; see the cryptogamons forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and the stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes that rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finish and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed it is the interior arrangement and the artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that give a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as wonder number four.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting, miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.

Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or eve callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. You are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where

Smiling spring its earliest visit paid
And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variagated hues predominate, another household have a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, prolificacy and all desirable qualities would truly astonish.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or from Timbuktoo and you will be "shown." Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season. Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horsepower up to a 200-horsepower, and all degrees of speed from a canter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

THE ENDING DISGUSTING.

[By United Press.]

FLUSHING, L. I., Jan. 13.—Tiresome squabbling between counsel of a character that would not be permitted in an ordinary police court marked the conclusion of McIntyre's summing up address in the trial of Thornton J. Haines today. Prosecutor Darring broke in on McIntyre a dozen times, and McIntyre openly threatened to interrupt Darring at every opportunity when it was his inning. McIntyre spent the morning on the testimony of Mrs. Annis. He directly charged perjury.

DEADLOCK IS BROKEN.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., Jan. 13.—The deadlock in the Illinois legislature was broken today and the vote of the last election canvassed. A petition from the Democrats for a recount was filed in each house.

Naming Harvard's President.

[By United Press.]

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 13.—The Harvard University corporation today placed the name of Abbott Lawrence Lowell, professor of science and government, before the Harvard overseers as its choice for successor to President Eliot. This action is considered to amount to an election.

A Reasonable Excuse.

"Bridget," said Mrs. Subbubs sternly, "breakfast is half an hour late again."

"Yis, mim," returned Bridget meekly.

"What excuse have you to offer? You know I told you that Mr. Subbubs must catch that early train, and punctuality at breakfast is absolutely necessary," said the lady.

"Sure an' Oi oversleby'ssilf," said Bridget.

"That is no excuse," said the mistress. "I gave you an alarm clock only yesterday."

"Oi know that, mim."

"Did you wind it up?"

"Oi did."

"And didn't it go off?"

"Sure an' it did that. It made a terrible noise."

"Then why didn't you get up?"

"Sure, mim," responded Bridget tearfully, "it was that thar that's made all the throuble. Oi never shlept a wink all night waitin' for it to go off, an' whin it did Oi was that tuhred Oi couldn't move."—Harper's Weekly.

To Cure Wrinkles.

"Look at a paralytic if you think wrinkles incurable," said a beauty doctor. "On the side he is paralyzed all his wrinkles disappear. Though he be sixty or seventy, his profile on that side is the profile of a youth. So the paralytic shows us how to cure our wrinkles—namely, by keeping our facial muscles still. If we keep our faces in perfect repose, never laughing when the comedian sings his best song, never weeping when wife or sweetheart dies, we will have no wrinkles whatever. The skin wouldn't wrinkle if it were not exposed. The skin of the body is much disturbed by action of the muscles underneath—as at the knee, for instance—yet this unexposed skin never wrinkles. Not being exposed to the bad influence of sun and wind, it has not lost the oil and the elasticity of childhood. And that's where I come in with my creams and unguents and massages."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

To Philip Sober.

When a woman who asked Philip of Macedon to do her justice was snubbed by the petulant monarch she exclaimed, "Philip, I shall appeal against this judgment."

"Appeal!" thundered the enraged King. "And to whom will you appeal?"

"To Philip sober," was her reply.

The Waning Honeymoon.

"I forgot something," said the husband.

"Yes," pouted the wife, "you forgot to kiss me."

"That may be, but what I came back for was my overshoes."—Kansas City Journal.

"You," said the bankrupt, "lost my fortune reaching for an ideal."

"Very interesting. And what was your ideal?"

"A bigger fortune than I had."—Philadelphia Ledger.

EYE-WITNESS TO QUAKE.

[By United Press.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Guiseffe Cutrone, a cattle dealer near Messina, is the first eye-witness of the earthquake to reach this country. He landed at Jersey City this morning on the liner "De Dalla," sailing from Naples two days after the quake. Cutrenco said he was enroute to Messina to sell cattle, when the train upon which he was riding was shaken from the track and then overturned, together with the station. He was buried under the debris, and dug his way out. He proceeded to Palermo, and finding his family all safe, continued to America.

Steamer Cherokee in Commission.

The steamer "Cherokee" has been thoroughly overhauled, refitted and put in condition for the season's business. A new, and somewhat higher, railing has been placed around the upper deck, and this is reinforced with strong, wire netting as an extra safeguard.

The "Cherokee" was taken out on a short trial run Monday, and she will make her first trip to New Smyrna next Thursday. During the balance of January she will be put on a regular schedule to Tomoka river, making the trip on Tuesdays and Saturdays.

Praises Halifax River Oranges.

W. A. Jones, of Catskill, N. Y., who has been in the city about a week, left for home Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Jones last year purchased an orange grove near that of J. B. Hinsky and Mr. Hinsky has since been looking after it for him. He is so well pleased with its appearance and progress that he will add 500 young trees to the original grove. Mr. Jones, who is in the fruit business, says our Halifax oranges are unequaled for solidity fine flavor and appearance and he carried away with him a grip full full of them to distribute among other dealers on his way home as samples of fruit from this section, fruit such as they seldom see, he says, in their markets.

THE ENDING DISGUSTING.

[By United Press.]

FLUSHING, L. I., Jan. 13.—Tiresome squabbling between counsel of a character that would not be permitted in an ordinary police court marked the conclusion of McIntyre's summing up address in the trial of Thornton J. Haines today. Prosecutor Darring broke in on McIntyre a dozen times, and McIntyre openly threatened to interrupt Darring at every opportunity when it was his inning. McIntyre spent the morning on the testimony of Mrs. Annis. He directly charged purjury.

DEADLOCK IS BROKEN.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan 13.—The deadlock in the Illinois legislature was broken today and the vote of the last election canvassed. A petition from the Democrats for a recount was filed in each house.

Naming Harvard's President.

[By United Press.]

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 18.—The Harvard University corporation today placed the name of Abbott Lawrence Lowell, professor of science and government, before the Harvard overseers as its choice for successor to President Elliott. This action is considered to amount to an election.

A Reasonable Excuse.

"Bridget," said Mrs. Subbubs sternly, "breakfast is half an hour late again."

"Yis, mim," returned Bridget meekly.

"What excuse have you to offer? You know I told you that Mr. Subbubs must catch that early train, and punctuality at breakfast is absolutely necessary," said the lady.

"Sure an' Oi overshlep' mesilf," said Bridget.

"That is no excuse," said the mistress. "I gave you an alarm clock only yesterday."

"Oi know that, mim."

"Did you wind it up?"

"Oi did."

"And didn't it go off?"

"Sure an' it did that. It made a tarrible n'ise."

"Then why didn't you get up?"

"Sure, mim," responded Bridget tearfully, "it was that t'ing that's made all the throuble. Oi niver shlep' a wink all night waitin' for it to go off, an' whin it did Oi was that tolred Oi couldn't move."—Harper's Weekly.

To Cure Wrinkles.

"Look at a paralytic if you think wrinkles incurable," said a beauty doctor. "On the side he is paralyzed all his wrinkles disappear. Though he be sixty or seventy, his profile on that side is the profile of a youth. So the paralytic shows us how to cure our wrinkles—namely, by keeping our facial muscles still. If we keep our faces in perfect repose, never laughing when the comedian sings his best song, never weeping when wife or sweetheart dies, we will have no wrinkles whatever. The skin wouldn't wrinkle if it were not exposed. The skin of the body is much disturbed by action of the muscles underneath—as at the knee, for instance—yet this unexposed skin never wrinkles. Not being exposed to the bad influence of sun and wind, it has not lost the oil and the elasticity of childhood. And that's where I come in with my creams and unguents and massages."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

To Philip Sober.

When a woman who asked Philip of Macedon to do her justice was snubbed by the petulant monarch she exclaimed, "Philip, I shall appeal against this judgment."

"Appeal!" thundered the enraged king. "And to whom will you appeal?"

"To Philip sober," was her reply.

The Waning Honeymoon.

"I forgot something," said the husband.

"Yes," pouted the wife, "you forgot to kiss me."

"That may be, but what I came back for was my overshoes."—Kansas City Journal.

Reached Too Far.

"Yes," said the bankrupt, "I lost my fortune reaching for an ideal."

"Very interesting. And what was your ideal?"

"A bigger fortune than I had."—Philadelphia Ledger.

EYE-WITNESS TO QUAKE.

(By United Press.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Guiseffe Cutrenes, a cattle dealer near Messina, is the first eye-witness of the earthquake to reach this country. He landed at Jersey City this morning on the liner "De Italia," sailing from Naples two days after the quake. Cutrenes said he was enroute to Messina to sell cattle. when the train upon which he was riding was shaken from the track and then overturned, together with the station. He was buried under the debris, and dug his way out. He proceeded to Palmero, and finding his family all safe, continued to America.

Steamer Cherokee in Commission.

The steamer "Cherokee" has been thoroughly overhauled, refitted and put in condition for the season's business. A new, and somewhat higher, railing has been placed around the upper deck, and this is reinforced with strong, wire netting as an extra safeguard.

The "Cherokee" was taken out on a short trial run Monday, and she will make her first trip to New Smyrna next Thursday. During the balance of January she will be put on a regular schedule to Tomoka river, making the trip on Tuesdays and Saturdays.

Praises Halifax River Oranges.

W. A. Jones, of Catskill, N. Y., who has been in the city about a week, left for home Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Jones last year purchased an orange grove near that of J. B. Hinsky and Mr. Hinsky has since been looking after it for him. He is so well pleased with its appearance and progress that he will add 500 young trees to the original grove. Mr. Jones, who is in the fruit business, says our Halifax oranges are unequaled for solidity fine flavor and appearance and he carried away with him a grip full full of them to distribute among other dealers on his way home as samples of fruit from this section, fruit such as they seldom see, he says, in their markets.
